Summer 2023 Featured Programs

These are just some of the programs going on in our community—please visit pickawaylib.org and pickaway.com for more info.

July 6 This program has live animals from DASH Animal Rescue, plus a craft. Learn about animal nutrition, health care and adoption procedures. Location: S. Bloomfield Park.

July 10 Kicking the sugar habit is possible. Local health and life coach Dana Beagle will share information and discuss actionable goals for daily choices.

July 13 Mr. Puppet will make you laugh and some will get to help with his show. 1PM show at the Main Library, plus a 3PM show at the Younkin Branch Library!

2 Shows!

Kids Cooking Adventure Series (ages 5-8) Kid-friendly snacks are the focus of this series presented by OSU Extension—Pickaway County. Kids will learn food and kitchen safety as well as info about following a recipe and nutrition. Parents/guardians are encouraged to stay in the room during the class. Advance registration is required, but free. Space is limited. Registration begins June 12. Participants should attend all three sessions—July 12, 19 and 26 from 1PM-2:30PM.

July 15 Singo-Bingo is a bingo card filled with Beatles' titles instead of numbers. Listen to song clips to hear if you can get a bingo at the Younkin Branch Library in Ashville.

July 18 Summer Fruits JAM-boree will focus on making fruit preserves safely this summer. Our OSU Extension educator will provide a hands-on how-to session.

July 20 Bats: Shadows of the Night will share info about these important little creatures with study skins and live animals. Presented by Ohio Nature Education.

July 27 Conductor Cody Magic Show will take you on an adventure. This magician loves trains and will "railroad" the audience to fun with his tricks while celebrating everyone.

For The Youngest Library Visitors

In addition to special programming for school-age children and adults, Storytimes happen at least three times a week at the Pickaway County Library in June and July. Babies, toddlers and preschoolers are welcome to bring their caregivers for stories, songs and a craft. Baby/Toddler Storytime is Wednesdays at 10:30AM at the Main Library. Sensory Storytime is Wednesdays at 11:15AM at the Main Library. Preschool Storytimes are offered at the Main Library in Circleville and the Younkin Branch Library in Ashville—please check the website for dates and times. Storytime will also travel to Canal Park on June 29 and July 25; Shawnee Grove Apartments on June 15 (with Bookmobile); and Darby Township Bldg on July 11 (with Bookmobile). Everyone is welcome!
